Alumni Feedback on Curriculum

Academic Year 2020-2021

ALUMNI ANALYSIS REPORT

The questionnaire intended to collect feedback from alumni regarding curriculum, relevance of education imparted at MGC to the current job pursuing, subject knowledge, College Alumni Association, Network of old friends, job employability and willingness to contribute towards MGC, faculty relationships, canteen facilities, library, environment, infrastructure, lab facilities, training and placement, overall rating of the college, contribution towards the development of the MGC, environment, infrastructure, lab facility, faculty relationship, training and placement. The responses for the question “How do you rate the courses that you have learnt in relation to your current job” are positive. This suggests that the courses that they have learnt are job-oriented and goal-oriented. Further, the responses to the question “Is the education imparted at MGC useful and relevant in your present job?” are optimistic and soothing. This implies the fact that they are happy and satisfied with the education imparted at MGC. Further, the responses to the question “If you are invited to deliver A Guest Lecture/A Special Talk/A Motivational Session for your juniors, will you be interested?” are quite welcoming. This suggests that they are happy to come back to their institution as alumni and deliver the knowledge they have gained so far in various spheres to their alma mater. Majority of the alumni have responded positively to the question “Would you like to join the Department/College Alumni Association?” This clearly illustrates that they are happy to be connected with the institution either as a faculty member or through the College Alumni Association. This positive feedback by the alumni really invites happiness to the institution.

MAR GREGORIOS COLLEGE OF ARTS & SCIENCE ALUMNI FEEDBACK - ANALYSIS REPORT

For the Academic Year 2019 – 2020

FEEDBACK ANALYSIS REPORT

Feedback collected in the form of Questionnaire from alumni includes curriculum, subject knowledge, job employability skills and continuous assessments. This feedback, for sure, helps in nurturing the alma mater, the best. The majority of the alumni did not agree with the first question "The Curriculum in the program is adequate and effective for future enhancement" and even with the second question "The program is effective in developing independent thinking and other job employability skills" suggest that their alma mater need a curriculum that is updated, innovative and challenging to meet the demands of the dynamic world. However, the third question "the curriculum is advanced to meet the industry requirements" has a very good and positive response. These responses assert that the faculty members will successfully groom their alma mater through their subject knowledge, teaching and communicating style.

Further, the positive responses of the alumni to the questions that are following, suggest that the continuous assessment, mentoring and evaluation system in the curriculum will help the alma mater to develop their cognitive skills to endure, sustain and flourish in the competitive world. The majority of the alumni agree with the question "The College has facilities to help teaching, learning, and evaluation" is suggestive of the fact that the College plays the role of the facilitator to the faculty members by updating their pedagogical skills in various methods, which in turn is reflected in the class rooms; and it also adopts both teacher-centered learning as well as student-centered learning for the best implementation of the curriculum among the students. This feedback helps in nurturing their alma mater to a greater extent.

ANALYSIS REPORT OF ALUMNI FEEDBACK

FEEDBACK ANALYSIS REPORT

The questionnaire intended to collect feedback from alumni regarding curriculum, subject knowledge, job employability skills and continuous assessments to analyze the alma mater's journey towards success. The majority of the alumni did not agree with the first question in the questionnaire "The Curriculum in the program is adequate and effective for future enhancement" implies that the alma mater need a drastic change in the Curriculum to meet the techno-savvy methods of the changing world. Even the responses other job employability skills" create an heart-wrenching scenario, when the majority of the alumni disagree with it. Probably, the disagreement to the above question suggests that the curriculum needs a tremendous change at least for their alma mater to march forward and embrace the victory; and the staff members are eagerly waiting to have a dynamic change in the curriculum. However, the third question "the curriculum is advanced to meet the industry requirements" has very good and positive responses. These responses probably establish the fact that the alma mater will be well-groomed by the faculty members through their subject knowledge, teaching and communicating knowledge. Further, the positive responses of the alumni to the questions following, suggest that the continuous assessment, mentoring and evaluation system in the curriculum will bring tremendous changes in the life styles of their alma mater to embrace the challenges optimistically in their future endeavors to scale great heights. This feedback helps in nurturing their alma mater to a greater extent.

ANALYSIS REPORT OF ALUMNI FEEDBACK

ANALYSIS REPORT

The questionnaire intended to collect feedback from alumni regarding curriculum, subject knowledge, job employability skills and continuous assessments helps to a great extent to measure the journey of alma mater towards success. Most of the alumni disagree with the first question in the questionnaire “The Curriculum in the program is adequate and effective for future enhancement” reveals the fact that the alma mater need an innovative and challenging Curriculum to carve a niche in their life. The responses to the second question “The program is effective in developing independent thinking and other job employability skills” is also not satisfactory reveal that the curriculum needs a innovative and drastic changes at least for their alma mater. However, the third question “the curriculum is advanced to meet the industry requirements” has very good and positive responses. These responses assure that the faculty members through their subject knowledge, teaching and communicating style will train their alma mater to scale the heights of success. Further, the positive responses of the alumni to the questions that are proceeding suggest that the continuous assessment, mentoring and evaluation system in the curriculum will play an important role in the career of alma mater to face the challenges successfully. Further, the positive responses by alumni for the last question “The College has facilities to help learning, teaching, evaluation and research ” reveals that the college is an active facilitator to the faculty members in the process of teaching and evaluation process; further, the responses also suggest that it adopts teacher cum student centered learning.

ANALYSIS REPORT OF ALUMNI FEEDBACK

Analysis Report

The majority of the alumni disclosed that Communication Skills and Self Confidence as their positive strengths. These positive responses for the first question “What did you identify as your best / positive / strength?” suggest that the communication skill and the Self Confidence are the tools of empowerment in the day-to-day life of all aspirants, including their alma mater. So it is decided to provide a Language Lab for their alma mater, to build self confidence through their speaking skills. Even the responses to the second question “What are the areas to be focused for your best future?” are quite motivating. Majority of the alumni disclosed that the course content and personality enrichment as the areas to be focused for their best future. This establishes the fact that seminars and workshops can be conducted on “personality enrichment” and “recent trends and development in the Industrial and the corporate world” respectively for the alma mater. Most of the Alumni responded to the third question “How can we contribute to make your future successful in terms of training? Mention few.” that “Add on Courses” contributed a lot to the success. From their responses, it is observed and decided to conduct “Add on Courses” for their alma mater to have a bright and successful future. Further, few alumni like to be a part of Student Resource Team and few did not. However, the feedback of alumni through their self-disclosure plays a vital role in making amends, if necessary in the career of their alma mater.
